1 where the violation took place.

2 (l) Any veterinarian in this State who is presented with a
3 dog for treatment of injuries or wounds resulting from fighting 4 where there is a reasonable possibility that the dog was 5 engaged in or utilized for a fighting event for the purposes of 6 sport, wagering, or entertainment shall file a report with the 7 Department of Agriculture and cooperate by furnishing the 8 owners' names, dates, and descriptions of the dog or dogs

9 involved. Any veterinarian who in good faith complies with the 10 requirements of this subsection has immunity from any 11 liability, civil, criminal, or otherwise, that may result from 12 his or her actions. For the purposes of any proceedings, civil 13 or criminal, the good faith of the veterinarian shall be 14 rebuttably presumed.

15 (m) In addition to any other penalty provided by law, upon 16 conviction for violating this Section, the court may order that 17 the convicted person and persons dwelling in the same household 18 as the convicted person who conspired, aided, or abetted in the 19 unlawful act that was the basis of the conviction, or who knew 20 or should have known of the unlawful act, may not own, harbor,
21 or have custody or control of any dog or other animal for a
22 period of time that the court deems reasonable.

23 (n) A violation of subsection (a) of this Section may be 24 inferred from evidence that the accused possessed any device or 25 equipment described in subsection (d), (e), or (h) of this 26 Section, and also possessed any dog.
