

§ 28a.6. Carbon monoxide detectors.

A kennel or kennel housing facility utilizing any carbon monoxide emitting device, shall install and maintain functioning carbon monoxide detectors in each room or area of the kennel and kennel housing facility in which a dog is housed, kept or present. The carbon monoxide detectors must meet or exceed the UL standard 2034 or the IAS 6-96 standard, or its successor standards.

Cross References

This section cited in 7 Pa. Code § 28a.2 (relating to ventilation).

---

No part of the information on this site may be reproduced for profit or sold for profit.

This material has been drawn directly from the official Pennsylvania Code full text database. Due to the limitations of HTML or differences in display capabilities of different browsers, this version may differ slightly from the official printed version.

Grabzt